

Betty's Ball Park Nachos

Uploaded on 16 Jan 2011

In this video, Betty demonstrates how to make Basic Ball Park Nachos. These are a mild variety of nachos, the type you might find at the concession stand at a ballpark. The next Nachos that I upload will have a zestier flavor, if these are too bland for your taste!

Ingredients:

1 pound Velveeta cheese, cut into 1-inch cubes

½ cup to 1 cup milk

round white corn tortilla chips

Bring the water in the bottom of a double boiler to boiling. Place cubes from 1 pound of Velveeta cheese in the top of the double boiler, along with ½ cup to 1 cup of milk. Stir constantly until cheese is blended with milk and melted. The mixture should be very smooth, not lumpy. Remove from heat and serve with round white corn tortilla chips.

Yum! --Betty ☐
