Published on 29 Oct 2012

In this video, Betty demonstrates how to make Vermicelli with Spicy Prawns, inspired by the new WIGS series, "Audrey," which you can find at <http://www.youtube.com/wigs>. WIGS is the #1 channel for scripted drama on YouTube, bringing you high-end, original series, short films, and documentaries, all starring female leads. The "Audrey" series premieres today, October 29, 2012 and runs through November 16, 2012, with new episodes on Mondays and Fridays.

Ingredients (for 2 generous servings of Vermicelli and Spicy Prawns):

Vermicelli:

8 ounces vermicelli, cooked according to package directions

¼ cup light-tasting olive oil

¼ teaspoon ground white pepper

¼ teaspoon salt (optional)

Spicy Prawns:

½ cup extra virgin olive oil

1/2 teaspoon to 1 teaspoon garlic salt (to taste)

several dashes of red cayenne pepper sauce (to taste)

Place ½ cup olive oil, 1 teaspoon garlic salt, and several dashes of red cayenne pepper sauce in a gallon-sized plastic freezer bag. Swirl around, to mix. Place 6 fresh prawns in bag, pressing lightly to coat evenly. Close bag until it seals tightly and marinate overnight. When ready to prepare meal, cook vermicelli according to package directions. While vermicelli is cooking, place the marinated prawns in a skillet over medium heat. (Add any leftover marinade to the skillet.) Cook the prawns until they are opaque halfway through, then turn and cook the other side. The prawns will cook for only a short time, and when they are opaque and slightly pink, remove them from the skillet to a tray that is lined with paper toweling. Meanwhile, finish cooking vermicelli and drain. Place vermicelli in a bowl and toss with ¼ cup olive oil and ¼ teaspoon ground white pepper. Stir in ¼ teaspoon of salt, if desired. Place on a nice serving plate and arrange 3 prawns over the top. Serve immediately. Enjoy! (Don't forget to visit <http://www.youtube.com/wigs> to see "Audrey!") --Betty :)
