

Betty's Fiesta Corn Relish Recipe

Uploaded on 2 Apr 2009

In this video, Betty demonstrates how to make her Festive Corn Relish recipe. This relish is nice and tasty, and also colorful. You can serve it as an accompaniment to almost any meal. It does make a bold statement in taste, when you come across the diced jalapeno peppers, hidden away, but that is just an added surprise!

Ingredients:

11 oz. can white shoe peg corn, drained
1/2 cup diced green bell pepper
1/2 cup diced red bell pepper
1/2 cup snipped green onion tops
4 oz. can diced jalapeno peppers, drained
1/2 cup sour cream
1/2 cup mayonnaise

In a medium to large mixing bowl, add an 11 oz. can white shoepeg corn, drained, 1/2 cup chopped green pepper, 1/2 cup chopped red pepper, 1/2 cup snipped green onions, a 4 oz. can diced jalapeno peppers, drained, 1/2 cup sour cream, and 1/2 cup mayonnaise. Gently blend all of the ingredients until well blended. Pour the mixture out into a nice serving dish. Cover with plastic wrap and refrigerate until serving time. This is a great, quick recipe that has a burst of unexpected flavor. you really should try it!!!
